

MOVE TO ACT'S RESCUE RALLY

The Rescue Rally Story

move to ACT launched Rescue Rally in 2010 to provide recognition and support to the all-volunteer rescue groups who save so many animals on a shoestring budget.

Why all-volunteer rescues?

These severely underfunded groups have no fundraising arm, no development director, and very little name recognition. They don't spend time or money on self-promotion. They just work tirelessly to save animals.

Rescue Rally:

- Provides prize money to help these rescue groups save more lives
- Offers them recognition and some publicity
- Saves more cats and dogs from IACC
- Assures donors that 100% of their gift goes to the cause

Rescue Rally focuses on saving animals from Indianapolis Animal Care & Control, where 4,333 adoptable animals were killed in 2012.

Rescue Rally Needs YOUR Help!

Everyone can be part of this exciting, life-saving effort! Individual gifts and corporate sponsorships make Rescue Rally possible. And 100% of your donation to Rescue Rally supports the efforts of small, all-volunteer rescue groups who rescue animals in the Greater Indianapolis area. Your gift saves lives — please give generously!

Save a Life – Be a Rescue Rally Hero! OCTOBER 1 – DECEMBER 31, 2013

move to ACT's 4th annual Rescue Rally again invites local all-volunteer rescue groups to compete for prize money by pulling the most animals from Indianapolis Animal Care & Control during the contest period from Oct. 1 through Dec. 31, 2013.

Any all-volunteer IACC rescue partner within a 50-mile radius of Indianapolis can participate. Learn more and register at: rescuerrally2013.eventbrite.com!

To date, Rescue Rally has saved 900 animals from an almost-certain death at IACC. Last year's Rally distributed $4,550 in prize money, and 12 local volunteer rescues took part. This year we look forward to rescuing and giving even more!
